

Chapel Theatre Season to Open

Readings for the musical comedy "Guys and Dolls" will be held next Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday at the Chapel Theatre rehearsal hall, 4164 W. Pacific Coast Hwy., at 7:30 p.m.

Singers, dancers, actors and musicians will be auditioned for the production. Fred West, who has directed such previous Chapel musicals as "How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying," will direct "Guys and Dolls."

Performances are scheduled to begin in late January or early February.

CHAPEL THEATRE currently is remodeling the former Lomita Post Office for its new home. The new theatre, located at 2222 Lomita Blvd., will be opened as soon as the remodeling is completed.

First production of the Chapel season will be Arthur Miller's "After the Fall." Lou Bruhnke of Hermosa is directing the production, which is now in rehearsal.

"AFTER THE FALL" will feature Jack Drake as Quentin, Joann Adams as Maggie, Bob Connor and Dorothy Tunnie as Quentin's parents, and Dick Jordahl as the brother. Others featured are Austin Rheingold, Pat Lester, Jo Lashman, Linda Scardino, Murray Rubin, and Nita Paschall.

Opening date will be announced shortly.

Assessor Has Job Openings

County Assessor Philip E. Watson is seeking persons with accounting experience for temporary employment in the personal property division of his department, beginning early in January.

Applications are now being taken for 20 openings as senior deputy field assessors at a salary of $715 per month, and 50 openings as intermediate deputies, at $575 a month.

Examinations are being given daily to applicants arriving before 8 a.m. at the County Civil Service Commission offices, Room 493, in the Hall of Administration. Examinations are also given in the Long Beach Civil Service office, but candidates must call for an appointment.

Applicants must be American citizens and Los Angeles County residents, at least 21 years of age at time of appointment, have an automobile available, and meet the job requirements in accounting experience.

Torrance Student Honored

Stephen S. Spore of Torrance has been named Stipe Scholar at Emory University for the 1967-68 academic year.

One of the highest student honors at Emory, Stipe Scholarships are awarded on the basis of achievement in academic and extracurricular activities, recommendations from educators, and interviews with a faculty committee.

Spore, a junior, is a member of Alpha Epsilon Upsilon lower division scholastic honor society, and Alpha Epsilon Delta pre-medical honor society. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Spore of 4229 Paseo de Las Tortugas.

Work Begins On Sidewalk Improvement

Work of installing 6,000 square feet of sidewalk on the west side of Dolores Street from Carson Street to 220th Street was slated to begin last week, announced Supervisor Kenneth Hahn.

The completed project will increase safety for children attending Carson Street School, he said.

Light District Annexations Win Board Approval

County Supervisors have approved the annexation of seven subdivisions into a Carson area lighting maintenance district, according to Supervisor Burton W. Chace. The subdivisions have installed lighting systems to serve the seven areas, complying with a county ordinance. However, annexation to a lighting district is necessary to cover power and maintenance costs.

The subdivisions are near the San Diego Freeway, Avalon Boulevard, and Carson Street.
